CITY MISSION REPORT

For the Months of July and August Shows a Great Amount of Work Being Done Among the Poor of Maysville.

The report of the City Mission Superintendent for the months of July and August shows a great work being done among the poorer residents of the city. The report for July was not issued last month as Mrs. Peddicord was absent from the city and her assistant, Miss Hughes, was not familiar with this.

The report is as follows: There were 62 families dealt with during the two months, 8 new and 54 old. There were 164 visits made to and in behalf of these families, 86 revisits, 66 collateral calls and 12 investigations. One hundred and twenty-three office interviews were held.

Much material relief was given throughout the two months. Many garments were given, 108 being the number. Thirty-three hats, 19 pair of old shoes and one pair of new shoes were distributed and groceries given to the needy ones 16 times. Coal was given one time, milk and ice two times, and a new pair of crutches were given one man. Physician and medicine was secured for two families and one week's rent was paid for another family. The following relief was secured from other sources: County Judge W. H. Rice gave groceries four times and Mayor Lee furnished transportation for two men and two women. Work was secured for three women and one man and three meals given.

Religious services are held each Thursday evening with an average attendance of 30. Bible School is held on Sunday afternoon from 2:30 to 3:30 o'clock.

CORA A. PEDDICORD,
Superintendent.

The work done by Mrs. Peddicord at the Mission deserves a great deal of praise. All Maysville people should aid the Mission Home in any way. The winter is now coming on and the needy ones in this city will need proper clothing and food and other necessities.

POLICE COURT ROBBED

Three gallons of "evidence" were abstracted from a locker in Police Court last night sometime. The locker had been left open through someone's negligence and the booze took flight as if it had wings. The thief must have used a sack for the murder juice was in pints and quarts. Well, the thief will be easy to find. The first fellows that come up before the Judge and cannot explain satisfactorily where they got the liquor will be suspicioned as the guilty parties. And the police are supposed to protect from burglaries.

TAKEN TO COVINGTON

A Deputy United States Marshal from Covington was in this city yesterday and took Heck Darnell to Covington where he is wanted before the Federal Court on a charge of selling liquor without government license. Officer Throckmorton captured Darnell for the marshal.

Darnell was caught here sometime ago and fined for selling liquor in prohibition territory. Being unable to pay his fine he was sent to jail and after serving for some time appealed his case to the Mason Circuit Court now in session. Since that time he has had his freedom, being on bail.

GRANTED DIVORCES

The following divorces have been granted during the present term of the Mason County Circuit Court: Neva Dryden from James Dryden. Flora Graybill from Leslie E. Graybill. Carrie Tulley from Preston Tulley.

MANY STUDENTS LEAVING

Many students are leaving for their schools in various parts of the country. Maysville yearly furnishes a great number of students to the leading schools of the country and this year will be no exception.

"Well, I reckon he will find out next November."

INDICTMENTS

Returned by the September Term of Grand Jury Made Public Yesterday—Adjourned Until September 25th.

The following indictments have been returned by the Grand Jury: Geo. Bradford, maliciously shooting, etc., bail fixed at $500.

Geo. Ferris, house-breaking. Jess Little, damaging personal property.

Thos. Brewer, appropriating property to his own use in common carrier.

George Cummins, same offense; bail fixed at $300 each. Joe Dudley, having liquor in his possession for sale; two charges.

Harry Commodore, same offense; two charges.

Wm. Edgar, same offense; two charges.

Spencer Hinton, same offense, two charges.

Geo. Bradford, violating local option law; two charges.

Wm. Hunter, same offense; four charges.

Hunter Cooper, same offense.

George Bradford, having liquor in his possession for sale.

Wm. Pierson, obtaining property under false pretense; bail allowed in sum of $200.

Charles Desmond, transporting liquor without proper label.

Walter Stockton and others, gambling; bail allowed in sum of $50.

Anan Marks, shooting another with intent to kill.

Ollie Bravard, grand larceny.

Robert McNeil, uttering forged instrument; bail at $300.

Fred Hayes, obtaining money under false pretenses.

Harry Commodore, violating local option law, bail $200.

John Brown, same offense, same bail.

William Edwards, setting nets, bail $100.

Joe Kelley, gambling, bail $50.

Yesterday the Grand Jury adjourned to meet on September 25, the last Monday in the month.

USED MAILS TO DEFRAUD

Deputy United States Marshal John Marshall of Covington was here yesterday and placed under arrest John Chancellor and wife of the county on a charge of using the United States Mails to defraud. It is claimed that the man and his wife wrote a letter to Dr. Young Stevenson of Georgetown, Ohio, which was a sort of blackmail. The doctor reported the matter to the government authorities who, investigating, found that Chancellor and his wife were the guilty parties. They were taken to Covington yesterday afternoon.

LEAVE FOR LEXINGTON

Messrs. Gordon Marsh, Horace Clarke, and William McDougle left yesterday for Lexington, Kentucky, where they will enter State University. Several others will leave in a few days to attend this popular school for Kentucky students.

NOTICE

Patrons of the Mason County Mutual Telephone Company are hereby notified that service will be discontinued to all parties who fail to pay their accounts within thirty days after bills for same have been rendered.

MISTREATING A WORTHY SERVANT

Mr. Hughes' unanswerable indictment of the Wilson Administration for its muddle of Mexican affairs is not to be met with the sneering, evasive inquiry "What would you have done?" But some things are clear enough as to what any President, confronted by disorder and anarchy in a neighboring state, ought to have done.

For example, President Wilson ought to have kept Henry Lane Wilson on the job as Ambassador, and he ought not to have adopted the futile and extraordinary expedient of negotiating with Mexico through a private agent, John Lind.

Instead of approval for courageous, efficient, intelligent and patriotic service during a grave crisis, and despite a telegram of commendation sent through some kind of inadvertence by Secretary Bryan, Ambassador Wilson was sidetracked and American affairs in Mexico precipitated into irretrievable disorder.

Yet Ambassador Wilson's conduct and performance were so discreet and serviceable that he had the expressed support of the entire American colony in Mexico City, including clergymen of every denomination. But he was demoted out of the service by the politician who was then Secretary of State.

For service in Mexico during the Huerta crisis, the German Minister was decorated and promoted, the British Minister was knighted and promoted, the Spanish Minister was decorated and retired on a pension, the Austrian representative was decorated and promoted, and every other diplomatic representative of every other nation but the United States received signal marks of his government's approval and confidence.

The story of the United States and Ambassador Wilson, a trained diplomat of many years' experience, illustrates the chaos into which our relations with Mexico have fallen.—Portland Oregonian.

THE RIGHT WAY TO KEEP OUT OF WAR

Mr. Hughes continues to campaign with a vigor and cleverness that amazes those who imagined that his years of service on the Supreme Court bench might have deprived him of those aggressive qualities which are so valuable on the political hustings. He has raked the administration craft fore and aft, and he moves from one issue to another with a rapidity which leaves the opposition without a plank to stand upon. He has been especially effective in dispelling the fallacy that Mr. Wilson has kept us out of war. There are two ways of avoiding trouble. One is to run away from it, to beat a cowardly retreat, and the other is to face it, with courage and dignity—and preparedness. Mr. Hughes had this in mind in his Fargo speech, when he said, referring to the vacillation of the administration:

"Weakness breeds insult. Insult breeds war. Honest, firm, consistent, determined defense of rights establishes peace and respect throughout the world."
Strength and not weakness makes a nation respected; strength and courage and righteousness, and not weakness and cowardice and expediency, keep a nation out of war. We want to keep out of war always, but we want to be able to stand erect and look our neighbors in the face.

That is what Mr. Hughes means and that is the truth he is driving home in his powerful speeches.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

WHAT IS THE REASON?

Would it be overinquisitive to inquire of the Administration why, if there are no conditions in Mexico demanding it, the national guard is being sent en masse to the border? The last reason we were given was that they might protect the border while the regulars were chasing a one-legged bandit across the deserts and over the hills belonging to our southern neighbor. Is there any better reason now? If not, why send a lot of untrained, unprepared, and unequipped men away from their home duties to spend a summer in the discomforts of a training camp located in the God-forsaken territory along the border?—Washington Times.

President Wilson was extremely busy last week. He had a long conference with Henry Morgenthau and others who will have charge of raising funds for the Democratic campaign; discussed with several cabinet members the best plan for drawing public attention away from the exposures Hughes has been making; discussed with Senate leaders the possibility of changing the revenue bill so that it will not be so irritating to the voters; had a long talk with Chairman Vance McCormick of the Democratic National Committee regarding the work of the campaign; met several senators and congressmen to talk over the political situations in their states, gave out press notices that he was keeping in close touch with the threatened railroad strike situations; declined to change his mind again on equal suffrage. His only recreation was motoring or playing golf in the afternoons, and a week-end trip down Chesapeake Bay on the government yacht "Mayflower".

Mr. Hughes' speech at Detroit stirred up an unwelcome activity at the meeting of the President's Cabinet on the following day. "After a long discussion," the Washington newspapers tell us, a telegram was sent to Mr. Hughes by Acting Secretary of Commerce Sweet denying some of the Republican leader's statements. It will not be long before we shall have Mr. Lansing writing notes to Mr. Hughes threatening him with "strict accountability."

The Democrats have selected a "publicity manager." This might appear more important if it were not for the fact that under the present Democratic Administration the promise of publicity—"pitiless publicity"—has amounted to so little. One trouble with the new publicity manager will be that if he tells the whole truth about his party record of the last three years there will be some pitiful as well as "pitiless" publicity.—Providence Journal.

The Democratic National Committee met recently to take up the question of financing the coming campaign. Tangible results may be achieved in the way of campaign boodle coincident with the awarding of army contracts to "liberal subscribers."

Editorial Comment

Mr. Hughes is seeing how big the West is, and the West is seeing how big Mr. Hughes is. It is a happy arrangement.

Friends of Wilson are still trying to explain what he meant by "too proud to fight." But can they tell us what he meant by "strict accountability?"

"Eminent judges," says Colonel Henry Watterson, "have ever proved disappointing candidates." He is right. Alton B. Parker was a big disappointment to the Democrats. And so is Charles Evans Hughes.—Toledo Blade.

President Wilson appears to have been keenly alive to the expediency of accepting several invitations to make speeches in the West. Nobody knows any better than he that it will take considerable shoveling to fill up the holes that have been dug in that locality by Justice Hughes.

At that, however, from beginning to end this has been more of a "you kick me and I'll kiss you" administration.

Vance McCormick says the Progressives are stampeding to Wilson, and it's a ten to one bet he wishes he could believe it.

The Democrats are finding out that pork comes home to roost out their standing.

The men and women who prefer a man who does things to a man who writes notes about them will vote for Hughes. Government by correspondence takes too long to get anywhere, but government by deeds is always on the job.

Those who are concerned to know what Mr. Hughes would have done had he been in Mr. Wilson's place may rest assured he would not have done as Mr. Wilson has. And that is answer enough.

Mr. Hughes is not only going direct to the public, but the public is going direct to him. A genuine American fifty-fifty!

President Wilson's alarm clock is ringing at 5 o'clock these mornings. He can reach out of bed and turn it off the morning of March 5.

Postmaster General Burleson is too foxy a politician to adopt for his department the McAdoo rule forbidding Treasury department employees participating in politics. Mr. Burleson realizes that postmasters are entitled to some exercise for the money.

There are no strings or mental reservations to the public pledges of administrative reform given by Charles E. Hughes. His record as governor of New York guarantees the fulfillment of every promise.

Democrats are now convinced that Charles Evans Hughes is a warm proposition.

It is gratifying, indeed, to find that Mr. Wilson still stands on the suffrage question where he stood at the beginning of his administration. He has changed on about everything else.—Philadelphia Evening Ledger.

It strikes one that instead of wildly hustling for the State of Maine, Vance McCormick might do better work by taking his wrecking crew to the West to repair the Democratic bridges that are being dynamited by Justice Hughes.

According to the week's latest work of fiction, the Democratic Campaign Book, the wage-earners of the country received during the Wilson Administration $3,000,000,000 more than they received under Taft. And all it cost them to keep something in the dinner pail was $6,000,000,000 more.

At the annual meeting of postmasters in Washington recently, the first assistant postmaster-general lauded the postal savings system. That must have been a bitter pill for Postmaster-General Burleson, who sat on the same platform with his assistant. When the postal savings bill was passed, Mr. Burleson, then a Congressman from Texas, voted against it. Every vote cast against it was cast by a Democrat. Not one Democratic Congressman voted for it. Yet President Wilson says the Republican party has not had a new idea in thirty years. Whose idea was it?

It was the instinct of a lawyer for Hughes to support his damning charges against Wilson, by calling Wilson's own secretary of state as a witness to prove them.

Mr. Hughes says there should be firm dealing in Mexican affairs. Maybe so; but we have had enough of the firm of Wilson, Carranza & Co.

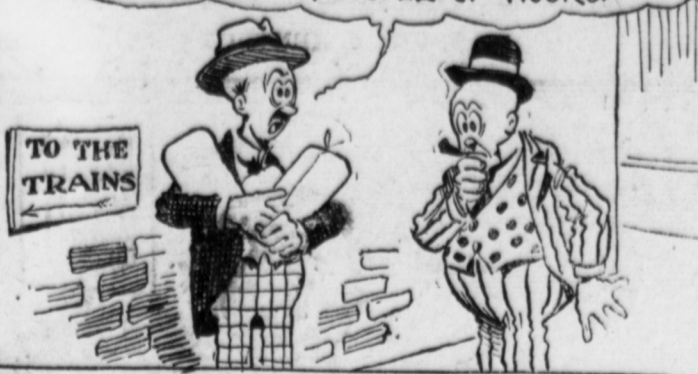

The impression is growing at the White House that Mr. Hughes is deliberately unfriendly. Look out for notes.

If those Democratic notifiers put off their notifying much longer they may find Mr. Wilson in no mood to accept.

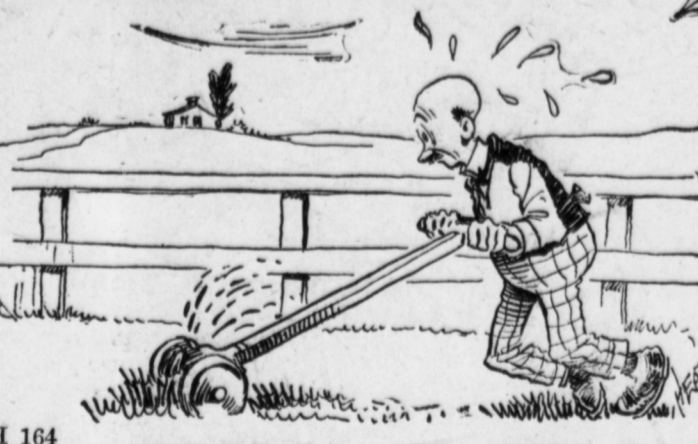

Some people are so superstitious they won't sit down to a table of thirteen people. But if there's thirteen dollars under the plate they'll grab 'em without ever a blink.

The road to success is a hard one to travel, but we'll get there just the same if we keep right on stumbling along.

BUT THIS IS HOW HE DID IT

NEW YORK LETTER

(From Our Regular Correspondent)

Mr. Wilson's Acceptance—President Wilson has been notified of and has accepted the nomination for another Presidential term. In his speech of acceptance, among many other things, Mr. Wilson failed to mention that plank in the platform on which he was elected which declared for a single term for Presidents. There must have been a sardonic grin in Mr. Wilson's mind, if not on his countenance, as he pronounced the words, "the people of small and weak states have the right to expect to be dealt with exactly as the people of big and powerful states would be" and thought of how he had treated Hayti and of the 600 graves of Haytian soldiers which testify eloquently to the difference between Mr. Wilson's treatment of them and his treatment of Mexico.

Wilson Changes Mind—President Wilson has changed his mind again regarding the sending of more militia to Mexico and the guardsmen of Vermont, Ohio, and Kentucky, said to number 12,000 men, will go forward to the Mexican border at once. Except in the case of his own stumping plans there is no question regarding which Mr. Wilson has, recently at least, changed his mind so many times as the question of sending more militia men to the border. What possible excuse there can be for sending more militia to Texas, just on the eve of the Mexican conference at which, everyone knows, it will be promptly agreed to withdraw Pershing's forces from Mexico, no one can perceive. When Pershing returns his command can be used to patrol the border and will certainly make unnecessary the presence of the 12,000 guardsmen now ordered forward unless—and nothing seems improbable during this administration—President Wilson is planning some spectacular demonstration on Mexican territory a few days before the national election.

What Mr. Wilson Omitted—The New York Evening Post, a most loyal supporter of President Wilson, presents an arrangement of his speech of acceptance as severe as it is just. It says: "We find on record here of his vacillations and short comings in relation to the European war. He does not attempt to defend his complacency towards the labor unions; he is silent as to his shameful breach of faith towards the colored people, his betrayal of the party on the tariff principle, his change of front on the Tariff Commission, and other issues. There is no hint here of the arrogance with which, without adequate consultation with party leaders, he has single-handedly changed the historic policies of his party. As if he had had a second thought on the matter of national defense, he barely touches upon the action of Congress in the field of 'preparedness.' He has put his best foot forward, but he cannot expect that the numerous blunders and disappointments of his administration will be forgotten. When one reads this speech one cannot but regret all the more that Mr. Wilson has not lived up to the promise of four years ago. Had he but remained true to the principles he had so often avowed, his reelection would now be a moral certainty. Far more than the criticism of his adversaries, Mr. Wilson's own shortcomings and compromises have today put many thousands of his former supporters in a quandary as to whether in voting for Mr. Hughes they will not, after all, be choosing the lessed evil. From this quandary the President's speech, for all its power, will not release them."

Strike Settled—The threatened railway strike has been averted, at least temporarily, by the passage by Congress of a law compelling the railways to pay the same wages for an 8-hour day that they have been paying for a 10-hour day, and pro rata for over time. Whether or not the railway employees were entitled to this increase no one knows, because President Wilson made no effort to investigate that phase of the question, and because neither he nor the labor unions would allow Congress time to investigate it. The only evidence on the subject is, therefore, ex parte, the statement of the railway brotherhoods. That the railway men were entitled to a share of the prosperity which this country is enjoying just now as a result of the European war is pretty generally believed, but whether they will receive, under Congress' ill-considered and hastily enacted legislation, their just share, or more or less, no man knows. There is not even the statement of President Wilson on the subject because, instead of devoting himself to that side of the controversy, Mr. Wilson preferred to mislead the public, or to attempt to, and immediately espoused the cause of "the 8-hour day" when the 8-hour day was not involved at all, and the only question at issue between the railroads and their employees was the amount of compensation which the latter should receive. New York, however, finds some measure of satisfaction in the situation because the enactment of the legislation and the prevention of the strike accords with the view which New York has all along entertained. New York figured that, in view of the injury which Wilson nor the Democratic majorities in Congress would permit such a strike, regardless of what steps might be necessary to avert it—and New York was right.

It was John P. St. John of Kansas, one time Prohibitionist candidate for president of the United States, who said that Americans vote as they cheer. If so, there is mighty little consolation for the Democratic party in this campaign, for the Democratic Administration in three years has given us nothing to cheer over. On the contrary, as Mr. Hughes has said, these last three years have been years of humiliation, and embarrassment.

HE KEPT US OUT OF WHAT WAR?

Disingenuous to Boast That It's Through Any Act of Wilson We Are Out of the European Contest.

RATHER SHOULD BE BLAMED FOR MEXICAN BELLIGERENCY

During the Present Administration We Have Seized a Mexican Port and Sent Our Entire Army and Militia to Fight Mexicans While Armed Mexican Forces Have Invaded American Soil and Fought Battles Against Our People.

Sometimes you hear men, sensible men, too, say, "I'm going to vote for Wilson this year because he kept us out of war."

Ask such men a short question. Ask them, "Out of what war?" Did Mr. Wilson keep us out of the European war? No. He has himself in a formal address to congress spoken of the European war as "a war with which we have nothing to do, a war whose causes do not touch us."

How could Mr. Wilson keep us out of a war with which we have nothing to do and whose causes do not touch us? Did he keep the rest of the western hemisphere out of the European war? No independent nation on this side of the world is involved in it; the only people in it are the colonies of European powers and they had no voice in their fate, for they were automatically at war when their mother governments went to war.

Who kept Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Peru, out of the European war? Did Mr. Wilson? Did Mr. Wilson keep us out of war with Mexico? No. In his term more Americans have been killed by Mexicans and more American property has been destroyed by Mexicans than by Spaniards during the whole Spanish war. In his term we have sent our regular army and militia to fight Mexicans. In his term Mexican armed forces have invaded American soil and fought battles against our people within our boundaries.

President Taft went through two Mexican revolutions during his term, the revolution against Diaz and the revolution against Madero. American lives were safe in Mexico during that time. No Mexican cities were seized by Americans and no armed Mexicans invaded the United States while Mr. Taft was in the White House. Yet Mr. Taft never thought of asking the American people to vote for him because he kept us out of war with Mexico. He put an embargo on arms so that American weapons would not be sent across the boundary, and he refused to interfere in Mexican affairs. When he left office Mexicans liked Americans and Americans were safe in Mexico. Since he left office Mexicans hate Americans and Americans dare not remain in Mexico. Did Mr. Wilson keep us out of war with Mexico? Not if words mean anything.

Mr. Wilson did not keep us out of the European war and he did not keep us out of war with Mexico. Out of what war, then?—Detroit Free Press.

THAT FULL DINNER PAIL

Relying foolishly upon the full dinner pail to accomplish for them what it has so often accomplished for the Republican party, the Democrats proceeded to pile extravagance upon extravagance and to make flabby claims of being at peace, even when we are at war, says the Detroit Journal.

For the dinner pail has been filled with munition money, which presently must be supplanted by the true coinage of protected American industry after the war.

And while the dinner pail is full, observe with what inflated foods. This administration promised the worker a lower cost of living. But, as a matter of fact, the worker Democratic prosperity is a false prosperity. It is a mirage.

Every man with a dinner pail knows that, unless his wages have been increased 20 per cent. under Democratic munition prosperity, he is poorer than he was four years ago. For Wilson rents are from 20 to 40 per cent. higher; the Wilson meat, the Wilson sugar and the Wilson wool are 40 per cent. higher, and the Wilson steel and tin and household goods are from 20 to 40 per cent. higher.

The Wilson bread has advanced faster than the Wilson wage, and the Wilson taxes have risen higher than the Wilson prosperity.

Democracy may have enriched the munition manufacturer, but has it enriched the worker, whose cost of living has increased faster than his earnings?

If the Administration can re-elect itself on the ground that the worker is obliged to move out of his home into an inferior one, or has to double up in tenements and to take in boarders to make up for his loss of economic advantage under the present increased cost of living, then there is no reason why the Administration should not be as extravagant in its taxes as it chooses.

HUGHES PLEADS FOR FAIR DEAL

G. O. P. Standard Bearer Comes Out For All That Is Good For Labor, in Lexington Speech—Denounces Legislation Before Investigation.

Lexington, Ky., September 5.—Chas. E. Hughes, addressing an audience that filled the Auditorium here today, condemned "legislation in advance of investigation" and declared that the United States "had gone very far toward the day when we shall have action under pressure instead of a consideration of the facts."

Mr. Hughes' declaration was loudly applauded. The nominee did not refer by name to the Adamson law, but his remarks were interpreted by many in the audience as applying to it.

"We have a new spirit abroad in these recent days in America," Mr. Hughes said. "It is the spirit that demands legislation in advance of investigation. It is the spirit that demands Executive action and Congressional action in advance of an examination of the facts upon which said action should be based."

"It is the spirit that says: 'Legislate now and investigate afterward.' It is the spirit of force. It is not American."

"In the bottom of our soul I desire fair dealing in this country between man and man. There is no one more anxious than I that there should be equity in connection with all our relations. I want to see our human resources conserved by wise and intelligent action. I want to see every part of class antagonism vanish in the presence of the application of just principles. I want to see our men knit together in a common fellowship."

"I want labor to have safe means of work, sanitary conditions of work, wholesome opportunities for recreation, reasonable hours for work, fair wages, provision for old age. I want what is reasonable for labor. There is one thing that underlies all, and that is that in all our efforts to secure what is just that we keep the price-less institutions of this land, which distinguish us as a free country and separate us from all the autocrats of the world."

"It may be very important that there and there shall be a change in the wage scale. I know not. It is a matter for careful examination. I should be the first to recognize any demand that is just."

"There is something that precedes my demand, however, and that is the

TOO DANGEROUS TO OVERLOOK

Maysville People Will Do Well to Heed the Warning.

To have good health, the digestion, heart, lungs and kidneys must work perfectly. When there is anything wrong with the digestion, heart or lungs, a very noticeable pain or distress gives prompt warning. Kidney trouble is more easily overlooked, however, and too often gains a long start. But kidney trouble does give early signs, and backache, headache, dizzy spells, rheumatic pains, too frequent, scanty or painful urination should not be neglected. When these warnings appear, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the reliable, successful, strongly recommended kidney remedy. Assist the medicine by taking things easier, reducing the diet and the use of liquors. A severe attack of kidney disease may be avoided. Doan's Kidney Pills have won the grateful praise of Maysville people. Read this Maysville resident's endorsement.

W. F. Lynch, 127 W. Third St., Maysville, says: "My kidneys were weak and the passage of the kidney secretions were scanty and painful. Having used Doan's Kidney Pills before, I again got a box. They quickly restored my kidneys to a normal condition."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Lynch had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

willingness to abide by the results of reason. It is the demand that when we do anything in this country we should understand the way we travel where we put our foot down, and never surrender to any force of any kind. It is as the future will unfold, our price-less heritage that we have a country where intelligence reigns, where there are many opportunities of education, where we are trying to stamp out every abuse working against our institutions.

"We submit ourselves with respect to our greatest national concerns to the arbitrament of the public judgment every four years. We submit our arguments, tell what we think and desire to be done. Then we go to the polls and express our convictions and then every American citizen whether he is victorious or defeated, goes home satisfied, and I reason rules. But the day must never come, and I regret to say we have gone very far toward that day, when we shall have any action under pressure instead of a consideration of the facts."

How to avoid Operations

These Three Women Tell How They Escaped the Dreadful Ordeal of Surgical Operations.

Hospitals are great and necessary institutions, but they should be the last resort for women who suffer with ills peculiar to their sex. Many letters on file in the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., prove that a great number of women after they have been recommended to submit to an operation have been made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here are three such letters. All sick women should read them.

Marinette, Wis.—"I went to the doctor and he told me I must have an operation for a female trouble, and I hated to have it done as I had been married only a short time. I would have terrible pains and my hands and feet were cold all the time. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and was cured, and I feel better in every way. I give you permission to publish my name because I am so thankful that I feel well again."

—Mrs. FRED BEHNKE, Marinette, Wis.
Detroit, Mich.—"When I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was so run down with female troubles that I could not do anything, and our doctor said I would have to undergo an operation. I could hardly walk without help so when I read about the Vegetable Compound and what it had done for others I thought I would try it. I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and used them according to directions. They helped me and today I am able to do all my work and I am well."

—Mrs. THOS. DWYEN, 989 Milwaukee Ave., East, Detroit, Mich.
Bellevue, Pa.—"I suffered more than tongue can tell with terrible bearing down pains and inflammation. I tried several doctors and they all told me the same story, that I never could get well without an operation and I just dreaded the thought of that. I also tried a good many other medicines that were recommended to me and none of them helped me until a friend advised me to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. The first bottle helped, I kept taking it and now I don't know what it is to be sick any more and I am picking up in weight. I am 20 years old and weigh 145 pounds. It will be the greatest pleasure to me if I can have the opportunity to recommend it to any other suffering woman."

—Miss LUCIA FROELICH, 1923 Manhattan St., North Side, Bellevue, Pa.
If you would like special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and

HUGHES' SECOND SPEECH MAKING ITINERARY OUT

Chicago, September 7.—An incomplete itinerary of Charles E. Hughes' second speaking tour in the West was given out today by Manager Alvin T. Hert, at Western Campaign Headquarters of the Republican National Committee.

He will go direct from New York to Peoria, Ill., where he will address the Republican State Convention, Tuesday, September 19, at noon. He will then go to the Illinois State Fair, at Springfield, where he will speak at 4:30 p. m., the same day. From there he will go to Madison, Wisconsin, where he speaks September 28, at 3 p. m. and to Milwaukee for a meeting that night.

He will then go to Indiana for a three day trip through the state, speaking at practically every large city, and will close his trip in the west with a two days trip to Ohio. The detailed schedule will be announced in a few days.

Mr. Hughes will make his third and last speaking trip of the western campaign in October when he will visit Iowa, North and South Dakota, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma and other states. No schedule for the third western trip has been arranged.

Charles W. Fairbanks, Republican candidate for vice president, will open his speaking campaign at Springfield, Missouri, Monday, September 11, and go from there direct to Oklahoma City, where he will speak Tuesday, September 12. He then will make a tour of western states probably going to the Pacific coast before returning for a trip through the East.

ATTACKS ADAMSON BILL

Hampton, Beach, N. H., September 7.—Charles E. Hughes, in an address here today, referred to the Adamson law "not as an eight hour a day law, but a wage law," and declared that failure of peaceful settlement of industrial disputes was but "another step from the adication of government itself." His audience applauded loudly.

"We can not afford to surrender what we have won for our institutions in this country," the nominee said. "What have we won? We have won the right to free discussion, a free press, a Democratic form of government, free assembly, free Legislature and an Executive chosen by the people. We have left autocracy. We have left tyranny. We have left force. They shall not come back if we can prevent it."

PROHIBITION PARTY RUNS SPECIAL TRAIN

Chicago, September 7.—The Prohibition party's special train, which will carry J. Frank Hanly, of Indiana, candidate for President, and Ira Landrith, of Tennessee, candidate for Vice President, and other party leaders on a two months' coast to coast speaking tour of the country will leave Chicago tomorrow morning at 7:50 o'clock.

Mr. Hanly and Mr. Landrith arrived in Chicago today and were busy conferring with party leaders preparatory to the long trip.

DANISH INDIES DEAL IS RATIFIED BY SENATE

Washington, September 7.—The treaty providing for the purchase from Denmark of the Danish West Indies for $25,000,000 was ratified by the Senate tonight. There was no roll call and less than half a dozen Senators, including Senators Norris, Jones and Clapp, voted against it.

Agreement Reached

Copenhagen, via London, September 7.—The proposal of the Conservative party for the appointment of a preliminary committee of thirty members to consider the negotiations for the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States, was agreed to tonight by the representatives of various parties in the Riksdag after a long meeting. No agreement, however, has yet been reached concerning the formation of a coalition cabinet. That matter will be discussed at another meeting of the representatives tomorrow.

TRAFFIC LIGHT

Passenger traffic on the railroads is very light this week as compared to last. Last week many persons fearing the big railroad strike were journeying homeward from their vacations and as a result of the scare little travel is going on this week.

MIDDLEMAN TRIAL

The case of Hendrickson against Middleman was begun in Circuit Court yesterday but all of the evidence could not be heard and the case will be tried this morning. This case has attracted the attention of the Mason county people for sometime.

CONGRESS WILL ADJOURN LONG SESSION TODAY

Washington, September 7.—Congress will adjourn tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. After nine months devoted to legislation both Houses held protracted sessions tonight to wind up their affairs by approving the conference agreements on the emergency revenue bill to raise approximately $200,000,000 desired by the administration to meet the extraordinary appropriation for national defense and the Mexican emergency.

Only the physical impossibility of enacting a revenue measure in time for the President's approval before tomorrow morning, prevented final adjournment tonight, despite the waning protests of members of both Houses who threatened, but did not execute, the threats to prolong the session by demands for action on measures which were forced over until December. Speakers of the Senate and House agreed upon a concurrent resolution to adjourn at 10 o'clock in the morning and scores of members left town on midnight trains eager to reach their homes for participation in the national political campaign.

BASEBALL SUNDAY

The Maysville Climax will cross bats with the strong Mayslick team at League Park Sunday at 3 o'clock and a good game is promised as Feltus will pitch and Lundergan, their hard hitter will be on the receiving end. Come out and boost for the boys. They have a first class team and will put up a good game.

WESTERN UNION OUT

The tick of the telegraph instrument will be heard no more in the office at Flemingsburg Junction, (formerly Johnson) the Western Union having taken out the instruments last week. There had been an office there for 45 years.

OUR COLORED CITIZENS

The members of Scott Methodist Episcopal Church are making preparations for one of the greatest meetings of the year. Invitations have been extended to the pastors and congregations of Washington, Mayslick, Flemingsburg, Aberdeen, Dover, Mt. Olivet, Lewisburg, North Fork, Manchester together with our city churches. Revs. Harris, Lee, McFarland, Board, Rice, Small, Jackson Breckinridge and others are expected to be present with large delegations from their respective churches, are expected. It will be an all day Union Evangelical Meeting with music of the olden times together with rich, rare christian experiences.

This Home Coming and greeting of old friends and fellow Christians will be the event of a lifetime. Meetings will continue during the week. The committee on Publicity is assured of the co-operation of the daily press so that the public may keep in touch with the splendid entertainment in store for all. The topics for the week: "The Coming Church," "The Spiritual Forces of the Church," "The Sons and Daughters of Epworth," "The Church Improvement League" will bring to the forum some of the best talent of our city. Miss Ethel Fleming, graduate of Antioch College and Dayton Conservatory of Music will add to the interest of the occasion and a great time is expected. Further information will be given through the press or by inquiry at the church or parsonage.

SHOOTING AT SOUTH RIPLEY

Last evening Deputy Sheriff Laycock of Dover brought Leslie Morgan of South Ripley to this city, and lodged him in the county jail. Morgan is charged with shooting Commodore Gillespie of the same place. Gillespie had been familiar with Morgan's wife and there was a grudge between them. The former was passing a patch of corn in which Morgan was working, when he was shot with a shotgun, the shot taking refuge in his left side. Reports this morning are to the effect that Gillespie is seriously wounded.
